

How Do You Register a Cosmetic Ingredient on the Safety Information Platform in China?

Background

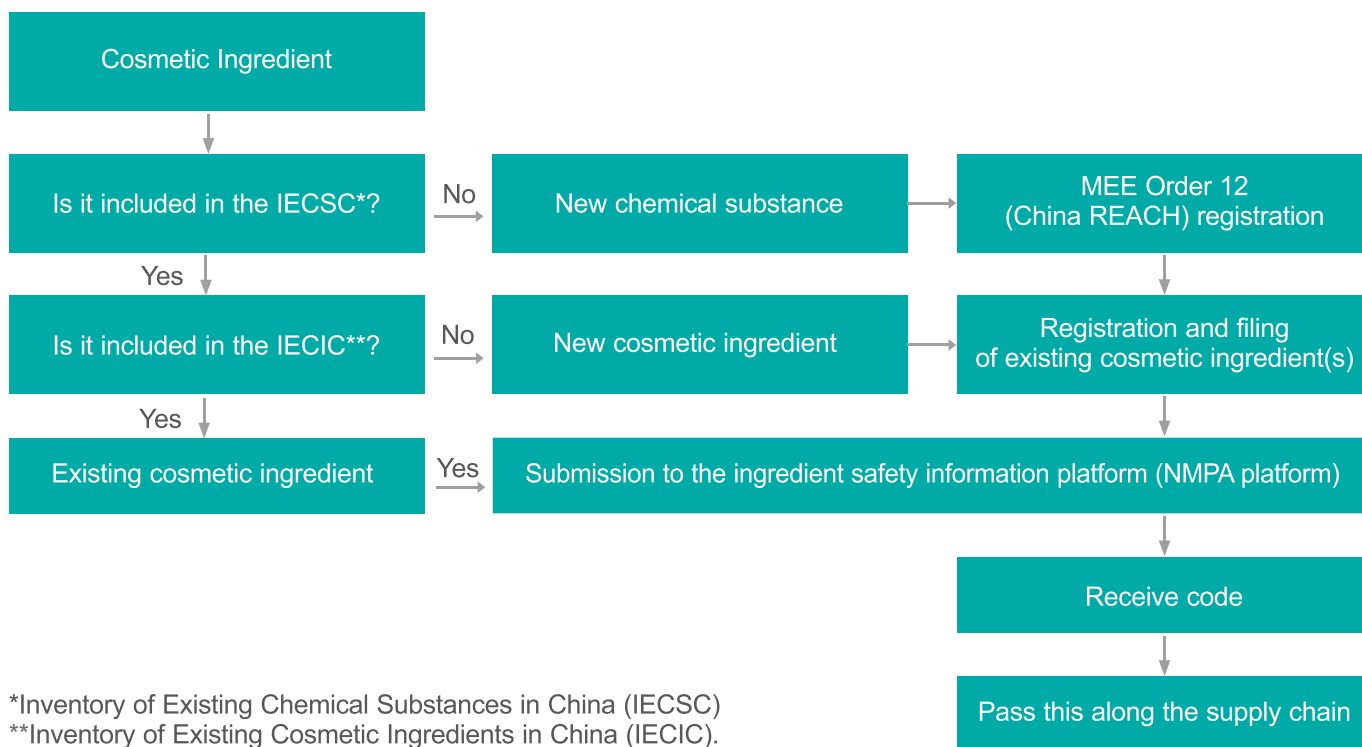

On January 1, 2022, the China National Medical Products Administration (NMPA) launched the cosmetic ingredients safety information platform. Since then, cosmetic ingredient suppliers have been required to create an account on the platform and submit the safety information of their cosmetic ingredients to generate a code. This code can be shared with downstream cosmetic registrants, filers, or the domestic responsible person to affiliate the safety information of cosmetic ingredients and report to the NMPA.

Implementation date: January 1, 2022

Regulation target:

- Manufacturers, distributors, and traders of cosmetic ingredients; and
- Those responsible for the safety of the cosmetic ingredients.
